Results

The results were fully analysed and an absolute cut score of 55.7% was applied to all candidates. Candidates who scored 85.7% or above were awarded an exceptional grade. This generated the following success rates.

Overall success rate

■ Unsuccessful ■ Successful

Success rate by performance band

■ Exceptional ■ Pass ■ Fail

Sex

There were 1,077 female candidates and 770 male candidates. 7 candidates did not state their sex. This generated the following success rates.

Ethnicity

There were 1,555 white candidates and 185 candidates from an ethnic minority group. 114 candidates did not disclose their ethnicity. This generated the following success rates.

Please note that where candidate numbers are low, these have been removed to ensure that no candidates can be personally identified from this data. Low figures in terms of pass or fail rates could, when paired with other information in the public domain, result in the identification of individuals. To avoid this, we will not release information where identification could result. We are unable to confirm the threshold used to redact data, as this in itself may allow calculations to be made from other information released in the public domain.

Comparison between force pass rates should be done with caution, due to the differences in the number of candidates taking the examination per force.

About the College

We're the professional body for the police service in England and Wales.

Working together with everyone in policing, we share the skills and knowledge officers and staff need to prevent crime and keep people safe.

We set the standards in policing to build and preserve public trust and we help those in policing develop the expertise needed to meet the demands of today and prepare for the challenges of the future.
